RE: Rudolph v. Jurkenas, MRS-C-92-24
Attorney agreement to hold documents in escrow

Dear Mr. Katilius:

Pursuant to paragraph 7(d) of the Settlement Agreement that our clients have executed, this is my confirmation and representation that I will hold in escrow all documents your client has executed and forwarded to me, until after Morgan Stanley confirms that the USD$125,000 payment of $125,000 by Steven or someone acting on his behalf has cleared in your client's bank account set forth above. I will not release the documents that are or will be in my possession to any other party prior to Morgan Stanley providing that notification.

All documents—other than the Settlement agreement itself, which is effective as of the date both parties executed it—become effective the moment 125,000 USD is deposited into Rytis Jurkenas' US dollars' account IBAN LT14 3250 0463 5525 1635, BIC / SWIFT codeREVOLT21, Bank Name and Address, Revolut Bank UAB. When the documents become effective, Jonathan Rudolph and Nerijus Katilius shall be permitted to release to their clients the documents they are holding in escrow.

Very truly yours,

/s Jonathan D. Rudolph DocuSigned by: 1095C53EFA9E45C... 2/5/2025
